

INDEX

- Achilles, 135, 142
 Æsthetic feeling, its importance, 3 speculation, causes of its neglect, 4 theory, its uses, 7, 8
 Æsthetics, Use of the word, 14
 Angels, 44, 138
 Apperception, 73 ff.
 Arabic inscriptions as ornament, 147
 Architecture, Effects of Gothic,
     125, 126
     governed by use, 122, 123
 Aristotelian forms, 119
 Aristotle, 132, 133
 Associative process, 149 ff.
 Augustine, Saint, quoted, 189
- Beauty a value, 13 ff.
     as felt is indescribable, 201, 202
     a justification of things, 202, 203 defined, 39 ff.
     verbal definitions quoted, 13
 Beethoven, 34
 Breathing related to the sense of beauty, 44
 Burke, 94, note
 Byron, quoted, 103
 Byzantine architecture, 83, 84
- Calderon, 132
 Centaurs, 138, 193
 Character as an æsthetic form, 133 ff.
 Characters, Ideal, 136 ff.
 Charles V.'s palace at the Alhambra,
     35
 Christ, the various ideas of his nature, 143
 Circle, its æsthetic quality, 68
 Classicism, French and English, 84
 Colonnades, 83
 Colour, 56 ff.
     its analogy to other sensations, 57, 58 possibility of an abstract art of colour, 58
- Comic, The, 184 ff.
 Conscience, its representative character, 27, 28
 Cost as an element of effect, 159 ff.
 Couplet, The, 83
 Criticism, Use of the word, 14
- Definite and indefinite, meaning of the terms, 105, note
 Degradation not what pleases in the comic, 186 ff.
 Democracy, æsthetics of it, 84 ff.
 Descartes, 14, 139
 Disinterestedness not the differentia of æsthetic pleasure, 30 ff.
 Don Quixote, 135, 192
- Economy and fitness, 161 ff.
 Emerson, 109
 Epicurean æsthetics, 10, 11
     sublime, The, 181, 183
 Escorial, The, 73, 159
 Ethos, 132
 Evil, life without it æsthetic, 24, 25
     in the second term of expression, 167 ff.
     conventional use of the word, 168 an occasion of the sublime, 177 ff.
     excluded from the beautiful,
     196, 197
- Evolution, its possible tendency to eliminate imagination, 22
 Exclusiveness a sign of æsthetic vigour, 35
 Experience superior to theory in æsthetics, 10, 11
 Expression defined, 145 ff.
     of feeling in another, 152, 153
     of practical values, 157 ff.
 Expressiveness, Use of the word,
     149
- Fechner, 74
 Form, There is a beauty of, 63 ff.
     the unity of a manifold, 73 ff.

- Functions of the mind may all contribute to the sense of beauty, 42 ff.
- Geometrical figures, 68 ff.
- God, the idea of him in tradition and in metaphysics, 142, 143
- Gods, development of their ideal characters, 140 ff.
- Goethe, 9, 129, 136
- Grammar, its analogy to metaphysics, 128
- Gretchen, 136
- Grotesque, The, 193 ff.
- Hamlet, 135
- Happiness and æsthetic interest, 49, 51
- Health a condition of æsthetic life, 43
- Hedonism opposed by the moral sense, 20, 21
- History an imaginative thing, 107, 108
- Home as a social and as an æsthetic idea, 50
- Homer, 129
  - his æsthetic quality, 155
  - his epithets, 135
- Horace, quoted, 130, 131
- Humour, 191 ff.
- Ideals are modified averages, 93 ff.
  - immanent in human nature, 197
  - stable, 198 ff.
- Imagination has a universal creative function, 143, 144
  - and sense alternately active, 43, 44
- Impression distinguished from expression, 65
- Impressionism in painting, 102, 103
- Incongruity not what pleases in the comic, 186 ff.
- In terminate organization, 100 ff.
- Infinite beauty, the idea impossible, 111 ff.
- Inspiration, 190
- Καλοκἀγαθία, 25
- Kant, 81
- Keats, quoted, 52, 80, 81, 137, 199
- King Lear, 173
- Kipling, R., quoted, 53
- Landscape, 101 ff.
  - with figures, 103, 104
- Liberation of self, 175 ff.
- Love, influence of the passion, 44 ff.
- Lowell, J. R., quoted, 112
- Lower senses, 51 ff.
- Lucretius, quoted, 131
  - on the sublime, 178
- Maps, 158
- Material beauty most easily appreciated, 60 ff.
  - its effect the fundamental one, 60
- Materials of beauty surveyed, 59 ff.
- Methods in æsthetics, 6
- Michael Angelo, 138
- Miser's fallacy, its parallel in morals and æsthetics, 26
- Modern languages inferior to the ancient, 131, 132
- Molière, 132; quoted, 18
- Monarchy, its imaginative value, 28
- Moral and æsthetic values, 19 ff.
  - the authority of morals over æsthetics, 164 ff.
- Morality and utility jealous of art, 163, 164
- Multiplicity in uniformity, 75 ff.
  - its defects, 81 ff.
- Musset, Alfred de, quoted, 129, 170
- Mysticism in æsthetics, 96 ff.
- Naturalism, the ground of its value, 18
- Nature, its organization the source of apperceptive forms, 115 ff.
  - the love of it among the ancients, 104, 105
- New York, the plan of the streets, 73
- Nouns, idea of a language without them, 130

- Objectification the differentia of æsthetic pleasure, 35 ff.
- Ornament and form, 124 ff.
- Othello, 178, 179
- Ovid, quoted, 113
- Pantheism, its contradictions, 182, 183
- Perception, the psychological theory of it, 36 ff.
- Perfection, illusion of infinite, 111 ff. possibility of finite, 194 ff.
- Physical pleasure distinguished from æsthetic, 28 ff.
- Physiology of the perception of form, 65 ff.
- Picturesqueness contrasted with symmetry, 71
- Platonic ideas useless in explaining types, 89 ff.
- Platonic intuitions, their nature and value, 8 ff.
- Platonists, 121
- Plot, The, 132 ff.
- Preference ultimately irrational, 16 ff. necessary to value, 16, 17
- Principles consecrated æsthetically, 25 ff.
- Purity, The æsthetic principle of 55 ff.
- Rationality, the source of its value, 17
- Religious characters, their truth, 142 imagination, 140 ff.
- Rhyme, 131, 132
- Romanticism, 114
- Schopenhauer, 198 criticised, 30 on music, 54
- Scientific attitude in criticism opposed to the æsthetic, 17, 18
- Sculpture, its development, 116, 117
- Self not a primary object of interest, 31, 32
- Sensuous beauty of fundamental importance, 60 ff.
- Sex, its relation to æsthetic life, 44 ff.
- Shakespeare, 114, 132, 133; quoted, 40, 173, 179, 189
- Shelley quoted, 11, 190
- Sight, its primacy in perception, 57
- Size related to beauty, 94, 95
- Sky, The, its expressiveness, 8
- Social interests and their æsthetic influence, 48 ff.
- Socrates, his utilitarian æsthetics, 119, 120
- Sonnet, The, 131
- Sound, 53 ff.
- Space, its metaphysical value, 51, note
- Stars, the effect analyzed, 77 ff.
- Stendhal, 48, note
- Stoic Sublime, The, 182
- Straight lines, 69
- Subjectivity of æsthetic values, 4,
- Sublime, The, its independence the expression of evil, 180 ff.
- Sublimity, 176 ff.
- Sybaris, 163
- Symbolists, 109
- Symmetry, 70 ff. a principle of individuation, 71, 72 limits of its application, 73
- Syntactical form, 129 ff.
- Tacitus, 131, 189
- Terms, the first and second terms in expression defined, 147 influence of the first term in the pleasing expression of evil, 170 ff.
- Theory a method of apperception, 106 ff.
- Tragedy mitigated by beauty of form and the expression of good, 171 ff. mitigated by the diversity of evils, 173 mixed with comedy, 169, 170, 172

- consists in treatment, not in subject, 169
 Translation necessarily inadequate, 127, note
 Truth, grounds of its value, 18, 19
 Truth, mixture of the expression of truth with that of evil, 172 ff.
 Types, their origin, 88 ff.
     their value and that of examples, 86 ff.
- Ugly, The, not a cause of pain, 21
 Universality not the differentia of æsthetic pleasure, 32 ff.
- Utility the principle of organization in nature, 118 ff.
     its relation to beauty, 119 ff.
     the principle of organization in the arts, 122 ff.
- Value, æsthetic value in the second term of expression, 155 ff.
     all in one sense æsthetic, 23 ff.
     physical, practical, and negative transformed into æsthetic 152 ff.
- Venus of Milo, 125, note
 Virgin Mary, The, 142, 143
- Whitman, 85
 Wit, 188 ff.
- Words, 127 ff.
- Wordsworth quoted, 80, 81
- Work and play, 21 ff.
- Xenophon quoted, 94
     his Symposium, 119